

Archives 2009

Writing is a very powerful tool and recovery can be a result of your efforts. Sharing your recovery with others can lead to their path of recovery. If the spirit moves you please help your Archive and the Forum and share your experience strength and hope.

1. Please write for Archives your experience about this subject, "When I walked into my first Al-Anon meeting I found out that Al-Anon is." What you write could be edited to share with others members.
2. Please write for the Archives Your Group History. Want more Information on your Group, e-mail or call the Archives we may have an old history for your group. You can update it and let us know how your group has evolved. archives@al-anon-co.org 303-367-1100
3. Attached is a G-32 guideline about the Forum. It has information about writing a story for the Forum. Share one of your Al-Anon stories and have fun. Write and recover.
